

The Mansefield is situated in the west end of Elgin, within walking distance of the city centre and all local attractions. This elegant former manse has been beautifully refurbished to offer enchanting accommodation, and boasts luxurious four poster rooms, an acclaimed restaurant featuring the very best in Scottish fare.

Elgin is the principal city of Moray, and dates back to the 18th century. The medieval buildings and quaint narrow lanes of the city centre are preserved to this day and attract historians, artists and visitors alike from both home and abroad. Moray also boasts such famous attractions as The Castle Trail, The Speyside Way, The Coastal Trail, The Stone Circle Trail and The Victorian Heritage Trail, not forgetting of course, The Malt Whisky Trail. The area is also home to the famous businesses of Baxters of Speyside, Walkers of Aberlour, Johnstons of Elgin, and such famous names in whisky as Glenfiddich, Glen Grant, Glenlivet, Cardhu, Strathisla and Dallas Dhu. Leisure activities in the area include fishing, sailing, walking, hiking, climbing, ice skating, skiing and swimming, so you will find plenty to do here. Otherwise, take it easy and unwind. The pace of life here encourages relaxation, and we guarantee that the pure fresh air, fine Scottish hospitality and famed Scottish food and drink will tempt you, like many others, to return again and again.
